

Image description of project ethics visuals

Title in middle reads: Our ethics: Supporting safety and well-being for families impacted by gender-based violence and family policing

Project values

Line drawing of people standing together on grass. There's a semi-circle in yellow and red encircling them.

Text reads:

- Justice
- Cultural safety
- Family-centered
- Relationship-centered
- Accountability
- Self determination
- Decolonization
- Harm reduction
- Trauma informed
- Wholism
- Equality

Our goal:

Hands open and facing upwards. Text reads: Identify the changes needed to BC's laws, policies, programs, and services to ensure the safety, equality, and well-being of families.

Methodology

Pink swirl behind text. Three green leaves on the left-hand side.

Text reads:

- Steering committee and interviews: Guidance and participation by community members and advocates.
- Community partnerships and dialogues: Co-hosted dialogues with 3 community organizations in BC.
- Coalition building for action.

Free, prior, informed, and ongoing consent

- Choice
 - be identified or not.

- to review notes and review your comments the day of the session.

Image of people sitting around a fire.

Text reads:

- Voluntary participation
- Some privacy risks with sharing in group
 - Choice to withdraw at any time and still receive honorarium.

About community dialogues

Image of cup with steam. A taxi voucher, image of elder, a book with text reading literacy and language, and a person with text reading: childcare supports, other needs also.

Text below reads:

- 8-10 participants
- Ages 17+
- Honorarium
- 40-50 participants across BC
- Supports are available

Knowledge sharing

- Participants and researchers co-develop project findings.
- Image of finger pointing up, text reads: push for systemic change.
- Priorities:
 - Accessibility
 - Community use
 - Cultural safety

Have questions about these research ethics?

- Image of blank box

West Coast LEAF logo. Women and Gender Equality Canada logo. Casseyex consulting logo with text reading: Michelle Bucholz.

Text reads in center reads: Project led by West Coast LEAF. This project has been approved by Community Research Ethics Board and funded by Women and Gender Equality Canada